Relevant Experience

Jr. Web Developer & Teacher Assistant @ Haiku Academy

Feb 2023 – Oct 2023 // Koh Phangan, TH

In the role as a Junior Web Developer included active contributions to the development of the learning portal. Simultaneously, in the role of Teacher Assistant, my responsibilities encompassed providing hands-on guidance to students, assisting with coding exercises, conducting code reviews, and offering clear explanations for complex lecture concepts.

My areas of focus included Code Review & Assistance, Web Development Contributions, and Front-End & Back-End Expertise. This dual role allowed me to seamlessly bridge the gap between theory and practical application, equipping students with real-world insights and hands-on experience. By providing classroom support and actively participating in the development of the learning portal, I played a pivotal role in cultivating a dynamic and immersive learning environment for aspiring coders.
